Or, donate to Freedom Outreach online through our secure Paypal

Planned Giving

There are many options for giving, and planned giving can easily integrate into your overall financial, tax and estate planning objectives.

A gift of stock to Freedom Outreach qualifies for a tax deduction based on the full market value of the stock, and there's no capital gains tax.

For more information on planned giving, including the donation of stocks, trusts, and endowments, contact Pastor Page (702) 526-7828

In-Kind Donations

If you are interested in making in-kind donations, including equipment, services or vehicles, please contact Pastor Page at (702)-526-7828

Freedom Outreach is a 501c3 public charity. Gifts to Freedom Outreach are tax deductible. You can give cash, appreciated stocks, real estate or other assets and receive maximum charitable tax benefits.

We are grateful for your interest in helping reduce crime and assisting those incarcerated who want to make a new life for themselves and their families. Many learn hard lessons while in jail and seek to take the necessary steps to reassure themselves of the certainty to never return to a life of drugs and crime.
